WE DO THINGS THE LCR WAY

Our ethos is to set exceptionally high standards and maintain them across all sectors of our industry, regardless of the show and its scale.

We continually follow our high standards with how we go about our business and take pride in the quality and presentation of our equipment, which is the envy of our industry.

Our continual investment in the latest LED technology ensures that we can play our part on making events more sustainable, allowing us to make a real and meaningful impact on the environment.

Due to our continued growth, we are rapidly expanding our projects team at our main office in Darwen, Lancashire.
